

Date	Time	Activity & Title	Speaker	Institution
Mon. July 1	09:30	Welcome Remarks	Stanisław Kordasiewicz, Cynthia Radding, Greta de León, Heidi Wiederkehr	COLING, UNC, ARENET, CAORC
	Session I: History & Environment
	10:00	Indigeneity, Culture and Language in the Ecological Borderlands of Northern Mexico	Cynthia Radding	UNC-Chapel Hill
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Persistence of pre-Columbian Traditions After the Spanish Conquest in the Peruvian Andes: a Case Study of Wari Female Elite Burials at Castillo de Huarmey and Data from Colonial Archives	Patrycja Prządka-Giersz	University of Warsaw
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Traditional Knowledge systems and their storage – how the study of ancient cultures contributes to biocultural diversity	Agnieszka Haman	University of Warsaw
	16:00	Coffee Break
	16:30	Group Discussion: Nature, Culture, and History in Language Revitalization
Tues. July 2	19:30	Reception
	Session II: Language Revitalization in Comparative Perspective
	09:30	Where T'idihoch/Huitzmalotepetl became La Silleta: Language documentation and revitalization among the Nahua and the Tének in the Huasteca Potosina, Mexico	Elwira Sobkowiak	University of Warsaw
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Languages and Culture of Indigenous Peoples of the Sakha Republic (Yakutia).	Kyunney Takasaeva	University of Warsaw
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Wauja Language Revitalization in Brazil	Emilienne Ireland	Americas Research Network
Wed. July 3	16:00	Coffee Break
	16:30	Group Discussion: Language Revitalization in Comparative Perspective
	Session III: Digital Technologies for Teaching and Language Preservation
	09:30	Archiving Cherokee texts and developing Augmented Reality/Virtual Reality tools for language teaching	Ben Frey Sarah Snyder-Hopkins	UNC-Chapel Hill Western Carolina University
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Real, Virtual, Augmented and Mixed Realities for Material and Immaterial Cultural Heritage Presentation and Preservation	Miłosz Giersz	University of Warsaw
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	The Digital Resources of Latgalian Language – Tools for the Language Development	Vineta Vilcane	Latgolys Studentu centrs/Students' Centre of Latgale
Thu. July 4	15:30	Lights and Shadows of Documentation of Cultural Heritage Archiving with the use of Digital Technologies – on the Example of the "Filling" Project	Marta Ostajewska	University of Warsaw
	16:15	Coffee Break
	16:45	Group Discussion: Uses of Computer Programming, Virtual Reality Tools	Ben Frey, Sarah Snyder-Hopkins, Vineta Vilcane and Marta Ostajewska
	10:00	Gathering with Mayan Language Institute Participants	AC Hotel Chapel Hill
Fri. July 5	13:00	Picnic Lunch
	15:00	Presentation: The Work of Recovering Voices	Gwyn Isaacs	Smithsonian Institution
	19:30	4th of July Fireworks	UNC Kenan Stadium
Fri. July 5	Session IV: Community in Action
	09:30	Visit to UNC Library with Mayan Language Institute Participants
	11:30	Round table & Discussion: Living as Indigenous People in North Carolina	Emil' Keme, Emilio Vicente Yesenia Pedro Vicente	UNC-Chapel Hill
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Greeks & Geeks	Danilo Brancati, Selene Gatto Giuseppina Ianni	GAL Area Grecanica
	15:30	Teaching a Heritage Language in Mexican Kindergarten: Is it Possible To Develop Innovative Methodologies And Succeed Within The Current System?	Gregory Haimovich	University of Warsaw
Fri. July 5	16:30	Group Discussion: Community in Action

Date	Time	Activity & Title	Speaker	Institution
Sat. July 6 & Sun. July 7		Visit to the Cherokee Eastern Band Indian Community	Oconaluftee Indian Village, 44 Annual Powwow, Museum Cherokee Indian, and Kituwah Village
Mon. July 8	Session V: Heritage Languages
	09:30	Cos-Maya-politan approaches to language and cultural revitalization	Genner Llanes-Ortiz	Leiden University
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Evaluating processes of a Wapishana-English Bilingual Education Programme in Guyana	Adrian Gomes	Leiden University
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Arabic heritage languages, oral languages and “classic” written forms	Abbas Benmamoun	Duke University
	16:00	Coffee Break
	16:30	Group Discussion: Heritage Languages
Tues. July 9	Session VI: Language Sustainability
	09:30	Cultural Sustainability: A Key Approach to Language Reclamation	Michael Mason	Smithsonian Institution
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Heritage Languages, Health and well-being of Indigenous / Minority Communities	Justyna Olko	University of Warsaw
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Maya Ancient and Modern Languages	David Mora Marín	UNC-Chapel Hill
	16:00	Group Discussion: Language Sustainability
Wed. July 10	Session VII: Workshop “Practical Strategies for the Communities”
	09:30	Introduction	Justyna Olko	University of Warsaw
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Work in groups
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Presentation of results by all the groups
Thu. July 11	Session VIII: Language and Communities
	09:30	Community-Participatory Approach to Yucatec-Maya Cultural Landscapes, Codices, and Environmental Conservation	Patricia McAnany Ivan Batun Alpuche Dylan Clark	UNC-Chapel Hill Universidad de Oriente UNC-Chapel Hill
	11:00	Coffee Break
	11:30	Community-Participatory Approach to Yucatec-Maya Cultural Landscapes, Codices, and Environmental Conservation	Patricia McAnany Ivan Batun Alpuche Dylan Clark	UNC-Chapel Hill Universidad de Oriente UNC-Chapel Hill
	13:00	Lunch Break
	14:30	Teaching and Preserving the Cherokee Language	Trey Adcock	UNC-Asheville
	16:00	Coffee Break
	16:30	The Siwar Mayu Project, a River of Hummingbirds	Juan Sánchez-Martínez	UNC-Asheville
Fri. July 12	Session IX: Concluding Session
	11:00	Group Discussion
	13:00	Lunch		